

The award recognises individuals who have demonstrated the values that underpin the planning profession to deliver a creative or inspirational initiative that has made a change to their business, clients or for the public benefit. This initiative demonstrates that you have the abilities to be a leader of tomorrow.

For example, this can be something you did to develop communication strategies, enhance client experience, support your team or contribute to your local or professional community.

Criteria

Applicants must:

- Hold any CISI exam or be studying for one, or be a CISI member.
- Currently not be a voting board member, principal or business owner.

Benefits of winning

The Winner will receive:

- £1000 in cash
- Feature on a CISI website
- Profile on CISI social media channels
- Feature in The Review announcement, our members' magazine
- Trophy and the accolade of winning

How to apply:

In 750 written words or a digital dialogue under 5 minutes (video or podcast), please tell us about the initiative. Remember to include:

- What prompted the idea?
- What challenges did you overcome to implement it?
